

Translations: Visual location of defects on optical fiber/16/en

After using the device, turn off the locator and place the protective cap on the optical output.